

Subway Escape Walk Through

- Walk straight forward and press 'e' to switch the view.
- You will see two doors appear. Click on the left door and you will stand in the next tunnel section
- At the end of the tunnel there is a door. Walk backwards through the door to the next tunnel
- You will see a half transparent glass wall. Behind it is a key. Switch view and click on the key
- Turn back and click on the right door where you came from.
- At the end of the tunnel go through the right portal, which is now open, as you have passed through that door before.
- You are at the starting tunnel. Turn around, you can see a new door as appeared.
- Go through the right door, works only in the "normal" view
- At the end of the tunnel, take the right door again.
- You will see a train. Don't let it hit you. At the other end of tunnel, press three times 'e'. A door will appear for two seconds. Click on it.
- There will be a hint saying that something is unlocked.
- Turn around, take the portal and go back to the previous tunnel.
- At the end, take the left portal.
- At the end, take the door in the middle.
- At the end, take the second door from left.
- In the tunnel there is a switch, click on it.
- Turn back and take the left door.
- Again, there is a switch, click on it.
- Walk forward and take the door in the middle.
- You will see the last switch, click two times.
- Walk forward and take the door in the middle.
- Walk forward and take the door in the middle.
- Put the blocks on the correct position. Switch to the colored view to see the 'correct' position.
- You now have two possibilities:
- First possibility: for the patient ones:
  - Turn back and take the door to the right.
  - At the end take the right door.
  - Jump up the stairs using the "c" button
  - At the end take the right door.
  - You will see a button.
  - Click on it and hold for 15 seconds. The button will disappear.
  - Turn back and take the left portal, middle door, middle door, middle portal, second portal from left, right door.
  - Click on the last door and you will be free.
- Second possibility: for the impatient ones:
  - Get the blocks out of order again – the doors are already unlocked if they have been in the right position once
  - Take the portal in the middle twice
  - Turn around and go through the door on the left so it turns into a portal and stays open after turning the switches off again

- Turn around again and go back to the tunnel before
- Walk forward and click on the switch
- Take the middle portal
- Walk forward and click on the switch
- Take the second door from the left
- Put the key back (click on the black key)
- Take the left door
- Click on the switch
- Turn around and take the most left portal
- Take the middle portal
- Take the left portal
- Take the middle door
- Hop up the stairs with “c”
- Take the left door
- Click on the last door and you will be free.
